About us

PHXVEST GLOBAL company is global structure allows us to offer a wide range of products and consulting services, expanding our ability to provide best in class solutions to our customers. The interests of our customers always come first. Mining is a getting of a digital currency by deciphering a specific digital code. Decoding of blocks is done by computing power. Profitability of mining directly depends on the capabilities of the equipment used. Therefore, in our work we use the newest high-class equipment and the most powerful servers (farms) for the production of bitcoins.
